

San Vicente Mountain Park

17500 Mulholland Dr, Los Angeles, CA 90049

Located in the heart of the eastern Santa Monica Mountains above an unpaved portion of Mulholland Drive 2.7 miles west of the 405 freeway, 10.2-acre San Vicente Mountain Park offers the visitor stunning 360-degree views, access to a large network of hiking, mountain biking, and equestrian trails, and picnic areas. Marvin Braude Mulholland Gateway Park, Westridge Canyonback Park, and the 20,000-acre "Big Wild" wilderness area, are all accessible from San Vicente Mountain Park.

Directions: Located on "Dirt" Mulholland, a seven mile stretch of unimproved road, San Vicente Mountain Park is most easily accessed from the eastern portion of Dirt Mulholland. The park's entrance is 2.7 miles west of the intersection of Mulholland Drive and the 405 Freeway.

Park Features

- | | |
|---------------|------------------|
| Hiking | Picnic Tables |
| Biking | Restrooms |
| Dogs on Leash | Drinking Water |
| Parking Lot | ADA Access |
| City Views | Filming Location |
| Park Boundary | Minor Road |
| Trail/Fire Rd | Major Road |
| | Parklands |