 - Applies to visits where a staff member is required on the premises, such as unlocking buildings or to answer facility questions. Visits to King Gillette Ranch Mansion interior requires staff for any visit.
 - The grounds of King Gillette Ranch are otherwise free and open to the public 7 days a week, from 7am to sunset. You are welcome to explore areas of the park that are not otherwise being used by for an event or filming activity.

Penalties

- Violations of the terms of your permit, including these guidelines are subject to penalty fees for each occurrence. Examples include but are not limited to the following:
- Smoking in non-designated areas or butts found littered anywhere on the grounds ($1,000)
- Going over your permitted time ($250-$800 per hour)
 - It is more economical for you to realistically assess how much time you'll need prior to your event than to risk going over-time or showing up early. This allows us also to accurately allocate staff and resources for your event and give you necessary access to our facilities.
 - Exact fees are determined on factors such as type of event, size of your party and the spaces you are using. The rate will be indicated on your invoice upon booking.
- Extra work to remove excessive trash left behind, heavy cleaning of food and cooking debris, and any cleaning made necessary by residue or stains ($500-$800 per hour of work)
- Monitor fees overtime after your allocated time ($135 per hour) – applicable for special events where the Monitor Fee is separately charged on your invoice
- Exceeding guest count (varies – refer to your invoice)
- Damage or removal of MRCA property – including fixtures, signs, lawns, plants (TBD upon assessment)
- Personal checks returned for insufficient funds or canceled and re-issued ($50.00)
